Thermal Imaging Cameras

Transaction Information Form

Re: 25 Hertz Thermal Imaging Cameras

This is to inform you that the _____ (insert P/N) thermal imager(s) is a 25 hertz cameras, export controlled by the U.S. Department of Commerce.

If a customer in the USA intends to export the thermal imaging unit outside the USA, it is the customer's responsibility to determine whether or not a license is required and apply for the required export license from the appropriate department of the U.S. government. Do not travel with your camera to a foreign country without checking with the government.

Be advised there are several countries to which the export of thermal imaging cameras is prohibited under any circumstance, regardless of the camera resolution or frame rate. These countries are Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, and Syria.

Export policies governing the export of thermal imaging cameras are established by the U.S. government and in order for you to be aware of these regulations; Palmer Wahl Instruments, Inc. is sending you this notice to warn you. Violations imposed by the U.S. Government can be expensive!
